Gentlemen: -

Your letter with check for $[illegible] received. Many thanks. $[illegible],000.00 is too high a price for the Gold proof set. What are you going to sell the former collection?

Yours truly,

My dear Sirs!-

Your letter of the 28th at hand. I am very anxious to purchase the sets and will tell you why I think $2000.00 is a big price for them.

The sets sold to you for $1570.00 but as you got 25% for selling them they netted you 1177.50. Now add the 190 set. 38.00 makes the full set- practically cost- you $1216.00. Now there is 1282.00 Cash in the set. If I were to give you 2000.00 for the whole lot- they would cost me $63.33⅓ per set- counting the 75 set- at 100.00 I think the above too high.

However I enclose list- of what- I have and would like an offer on a basis of exchange.

Very Truly

Dear Sirs:-

In reply to your letter of October 28th, I have carefully gone over my set of Quarter Eagles and from your description I have a better set than the set you offer, take it as a whole. There are some coins in the set you have that I would like if the owner would consider breaking the set. I suppose he would not do this but I write to ask.

Yours truly,

My Dear Sirs:-

Referring to the gold coins left with you the other day, I have carefully gone over the matter and would not consider disposing of them at the price named, $325.00, as I consider them worth very much more than this. I do not believe that we could come to an agreement, for I do not believe you would be willing to pay what I consider their value, but I would like to ask you if you could put them in your auction sale which is soon coming off, and if so, what would be the commission that you would charge me for handling them ?

Yours very truly,

W. H. Woodin

Dear Sirs:-

In reply to your letter of the 22nd, I see no objection to your using my name as the owner of the gold if you think that it will help the sale any. I really don't see how it would, but as stated above, I am indifferent in regard to the matter.

Dear Sirs:-

Your letter of the 5th inst., with priced catalogue, received. I think under the circumstances the gold sold fairly well. Of course, there were some coins sold at prices that I would not have thought of accepting for them under any circumstances, but I suppose this is always the case in a sale.

Yours very truly,

Dear Sirs:-

Your letter of the 22nd, enclosing check of $408.84, being proceeds of sale of coins, has been received. Please advise me as to how you figure commission My understanding was that it was to be 20%, in accordance with your letters of April 9th and 13th last. I see you have figured the commission $136.41.

Awaiting your advices,
